About Webinar

The enchanting field of Phytomedicines and Phytopharmaceuticals has gained enormous popularity due to promising effectiveness of traditional medicines. Further, modern scientific approach towards ethnomedicines have given rise to novel branches like Phytopharmaceuticals, Nutraceuticals, Food for Special Medical Purpose and Cosmetics in fields of herbal drug engineering. With these advancements there is a greater need to have a thorough understanding of Novel Facets of Phytomedicines. The objective of this national webinar is to fill this gap so that both academicians and professional working in the field could benefit from the same.
