Vasantpanchmi Celebration Report

The School of Pharmacy Library celebrated Vasant Panchami on 23/01/2026 with great devotion, enthusiasm, and cultural spirit. Vasant Panchami, dedicated to Goddess Saraswati, symbolizes knowledge, wisdom, learning, and creativity. The celebration aimed to instill cultural values, promote academic awareness, and encourage reading habits among students.

The program commenced on an auspicious note with the lighting of the ceremonial lamp, signifying the removal of ignorance and the spread of knowledge. This was followed by the Saraswati Aarti, invoking the divine blessings of Goddess Saraswati. The serene and spiritual beginning set a positive tone for the entire event.

The cultural segment added vibrancy and grace to the celebration:

Students of Semester 4 performed a traditional dance, beautifully showcasing Indian culture, traditions, and the spirit of Vasant Panchami. Students from the same semester also presented Shlok Recitation (Shlok Gaan), which created a calm, devotional, and spiritually enriching atmosphere. The recitation reflected the true essence of learning and wisdom associated with the festival.

Felicitations and Awards:

During the event, various library-organized academic and awareness activities conducted throughout the academic year were highlighted. These included Poster Presentation, E-Lab Understanding, Laboratory Instrument Awareness, and other academic initiatives aimed at enhancing students' practical knowledge and learning skills. Participants of these activities were felicitated with certificates and gifts by Prof. Sanjay Chauhan Sir as a token of appreciation for their active participation and commendable achievements. On this occasion, the Best Reader Award was also presented to encourage and promote regular reading habits among students, emphasizing the importance of libraries in academic growth.

The entire event was successfully conducted under the able guidance of Prof. Sanjay Chauhan Sir, with efficient planning, coordination, and management by the Library Department. The program concluded on a positive note, leaving students and faculty members inspired and enriched.

Overall, the Vasant Panchami celebration was meaningful, well-organized, and culturally enriching, reinforcing the values of knowledge, discipline, and tradition among students.
